

I am a frequent traveler and know well how difficult traveling is these days. Please don't impose cell phone use in the air on all of us. It may be the only "amenity" left to us.